

Part - 3

Class - IV

Subject - Science

(Chapter - Adaptation in animals)

1. What is adaptation ?

Ans: Animals have special features to survive and grow with the particular environment. These features are called adaptation.

2. What is habitate ?

Ans : Habitate is the natural home of animals.

3. What are terrestrial animals ?

Ans: Those animals live on land are called land animals or terrestrial animals.

4. Where do you find the aquatic animals ?

Ans: Aquatic animals are found in water. Fish, crabs, turtles, etc. are aquatic animals.

5. Where do aireal animals live ?

Ans: Aireal animals mostly live in air. Birds are the example of such animals.

6. What are arboreal animals?

Ans: The animals that live on land are called arboreal animals.

7. Classify the animals on the basis of nutrients.

Ans: On the basis of nutritional adaptation, animals can be classified under the following categories:

(i) Herbivores

(ii) Carnivores

(iii) Scavengers

(iv) Omnivores

(v) Parasites